

Redskins Next On List for Hopeful Rams

Football diehards of the Southland are awaiting the year's top pre-season football attraction this Friday night when the Los Angeles Rams and Washington Redskins renew their bitter rivalry.

Over the years the Rams-Redskins donnybrooks have furnished some of the year's biggest thrills and spills and this year's edition of their annual classic figures to be another of those typically rough "wars."

IN THE Washington Redskins the Rams face a club that many are predicting will pick up all the marbles in the Eastern Division of the National Football League. In quarterbacks Eagle Day and Ralph Guglielmi the skins possess two of the youngest potential greats in that position.

Over the years the Rams have emerged victoriously 8 times while the Redskins have been able to dump the Rams 6; however, in the past five games the Redskins have beaten the Rams three times. Last year Washington registered a thrilling last second 23 to 21 verdict thanks to a perfect field goal and the brilliant running of halfback Dick James.

Los Angeles this year will counter with new plays and a couple country fair "pitchers" of their own, veteran Billy Wade and comparative newcomer Frank Ryan.

PLENTY OF good seats are still available with the Ram's "Kid's Plan" in force — one adult General Admission entitles the purchaser to bring along five lucky youngsters for a great night of pro football.

So, on August 19 Ram fans will have another look at Bob Waterfield's "Black Watch" and can draw their own conclusions as to what kind of a season Ram diehards can look forward to.

GAME GOES GLAMOROUS . . . For the first time in history of Rams-Redskins charity game series, two of the Southland's prettiest gals are ruling as Miss Ram and Miss Redskins. Gloria Wall, Miss Ram, is being pursued by Mariellen Smith, Miss Redskins, in above photo. Both will provide glamour for Aug. 19 renewal.

Frank Ryan Given Vote of Confidence at QB Position

Mathematically genius Frank Ryan gets A's on the football field as well as the UCLA classrooms he attends when he is not pursuing his ambitions on the gridiron. Ryan was accorded the highest honor of his football life Saturday when Coach Bob Waterfield of the Rams named him to open against the Philadelphia Eagles in the Coliseum.

Ryan thus succeeds Billy Wade as "Buckets" number one field general, at least for the Philly game. Following the clash with the Eagles, the Rams will face the Washington Redskins Friday night in the Coliseum in a game that has always proven rough for the Rams.

Last year a field goal in the final seconds sent the Rams home defeated.

Naval Reserve Hot Rod Show Set to Open

Scores of the Southland's top hot rod, sports and custom cars will be competing for trophies and prizes on August 20 and 21 during the first annual Auto Show sponsored by the U.S. Naval Reserve at Chavez Ravine in Los Angeles.

There will be four classes of judging: sports cars, competition cars, mild, and radical custom cars. Judges will be representatives of L.A. area newspapers, auto magazines, and city officials.

Persons interested in entering obtain information by phoning MADISON 7-8004.

An excessive dieoff of trout has been reported by DFG personnel in many small mountain lakes of Northern California. The dieoff is blamed on poor water quality, resulting from a series of low runoff seasons.

The waters in which the situation is the worst right now are in the Alpine, Mono, Almador and Plumas Counties.

TAPPA KEGGAS, JFF ALREADY CROWNED

Elks, Kiwanis Duel for Service League Title

The defending champion and league-leading Torrance Elks and the challenging Torrance Kiwanis are loading their guns for this week's "biggest game" of the Service slo-pitch league after the Elks failed to clinch the 1960 title Thursday, losing to the 7th place Torrance Herald, 5-4.

A Kiwanis victory over the Elks this Thursday at Torrance Park, beginning at 7:30, would send the final standings into a tizzling three-team tie for the title.

The Torrance Merchants, like the Kiwanis, are just one game back.

Meanwhile, the Red League and Blue League champions have both virtually been crowned following Just For Fun's 5-2 win over Columbia ERA this week. The victory opened up a two-game lead for JFF in the Red League with one tilt to go.

OF COURSE, the Tappa Keggas, defending Southern California champs, long ago salted away their second Blue League crown, and now lead the pack by seven games following their 14th straight league win, 4-2.

Back to the Service Loop, the Elks were bumped off in the 7th inning as the newsmen rallied for two runs to take it on a bobbed ball at the plate. The Elks' Al Roberts and the Herald's Gary Pflingston had three hits each.

The Torrance Kiwanis were nearly upset by the Optimists however, and had to pull it out of the fire in the 7th, 5-4, to stay in contention.

THE MERCHANTS upended the Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen, 10-6 as Tom Randall and Ed Raphael had three hits each. Hank Behrens and Dale Wickstrom had three hits apiece for the losers.

The Walteria Kiwanis and Lions Club slapped a total of 29 hits, before the Kiwanis took a 9-6 verdict. Roy Roberts for the winners and Charlie Irvine of the Lions had three hits.

But the biggest binge of the week was put on by Toby Venable of the City Employees as the citymen blasted the Redondo Post Office, 13-3. Toby went 4-5, including a homer, and scored twice during the rout.

THE LONGEST game of the season was duled out in the Red League, 11 innings before St. James Church pushed across the clincher to beat the South Bay Church of God, 4-3.

Fred Owens scored the winning run on an error after getting on via his fourth succes-

Tanner Sets One Lap Record at Ascot Stadium

The West's finest wheel artists clash in the 20th straight week of motorcycle racing Friday night at Gardena's Ascot Stadium with Los Angeles' Al Gunter again favored to pick up the marbles.

The first of the 13 races will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Challenging the point standing leader, Gunter, will be the fast-improving Stu Morley, Troy Lee and Sammy Tanner, who is rapidly regaining the form which won him the point title last year.

Tanner recently set a one-lap track record over the half-mile dirt oval of 23.44s., breaking Gunter's year-old mark of 23.51s.

single to leftfield. Pacific Perforating's Don St. John went 3-4 in a 9-1 triumph over St. Lawrence Church.
